About Fellowship Academy

Fellowship Academy is a small private school located in Liberty Hill. We have a community of respect, order, and flexibility that exists to meet a variety of learning needs. Join us as we grow our school and help shape our students to become competent men and women of character who make a positive difference for Christ in the next generation. Our campus has several openings for teachers to meet the needs of our growing population.

We need teachers to plan and implement a student-centered curriculum in a supportive classroom that promotes high expectations, compassion, and independent critical thinking while addressing the individual academic and emotional needs of each student. Our teachers love the small classes and really getting to know each student and family.
